

OMAHA U. FIVE NEARS FINISH COURT SEASON

Team Has Gone Through Hard Time—Weakened But Game—Dana Here.

With but two games to go, the Omaha University basketball team is drawing near the finish of its game fight against odds.

With three star men, Konecky, Clements, and Reeves, declared ineligible soon after the start of the season, Coach Adams has built up a court machine from green material that is dangerous to any team in the state Conference.

Omaha fight has carried the team through, with wonderful backing by the school as a whole, and the season nearly finished is one that has no equal in the history of the school.

Dana is the next opponent, to be played here Friday, and win or lose, athletics have taken a big step at Omaha Uni.

ORCHESTRA PROGRESSING

The orchestra under the direction of Conductor Borchertling is coming along in fine shape. It is planning various programs for the University, and by Spring will present a musical, and take care of the work for Gala Day.

DR. VARTANIAN HELPS AT RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Dr. V. H. Vartanian will represent the state of Nebraska as a speaker at the School of Religious Education which is to be held at the first Presbyterian church in Council Bluffs from March 3-7. He will give lectures on religious questions before an assembly of church and Sunday School officials, teachers, and pupils at 7:30 each evening. Although this course is primarily for the "Bluffers" any interested person will be welcomed.

It is believed that "some good may come out of Council Bluffs" after this series of lectures.

MARY FISCHER WRITES ESSAY FOR NEW STUDENT

Mary Fischer's essay on "Football Scholarships or Other Compensation for Players" has been sent to the "New Student" as the best essay, written by a student of any rhetoric class of the University.

Several weeks ago Mr. McKibben gave the opportunity to compete in the essay writing contest on any subject pertaining to football. "Scholarships should not be given," says Mary, saying that athletics are not the vital issue they seem.

Her essay will probably appear in full in an early issue of the New Student.

THE WEATHER.

Dark Tonight and Probably Tomorrow Night.

PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL READY FOR ADOPTION

Constitution Drawn up, Submitted to Fraternalities—Rush Rules very Successful.

The success of the Pan-Hellenic is assured. It was underlined as to whether or not the proposition would receive the whole-hearted support of the fraternities of the school, but with the drawing up of the constitution and rules, success is certain.

The rules committee consisting of Professors Cameron and Johnson, and Ken Baker, Dave Rebel, and Anne McConnell, met to draw up a constitution. One had been submitted so the committee made a few changes and presented it to the Council.

By vote of the group the constitution was accepted, and was referred to the various fraternities for their approval. Members of the Council feel certain that the constitution will be adopted by the societies.

One pleasing feature to note was the successful manner in which the rushing rules were carried out. Each society was under a "gentleman's agreement" to carry out the rules drawn up by the tentative group, and during the week there were no violations.

With the Pan-Hellenic the University should find a new era of goodwill and co-operation.

COACH ERNIE ADAMS ANATHEMIZES BACK

Bad Back Keeps Ernie at Home—Team Putting in Best Licks.

Coach Ernie Adams is still stopping lightly. Ever since Sunday morning he has been nearly laid up with such a bad back that it took him an hour and one half to get out of bed Monday morning, he avers.

Ernie got a bad cold Saturday and it apparently settled in his spinal region. At all odds, though, he is getting a good rest and the team is not lozying around because of his absence, but are working hard to show him a team with a collective "eye."

LOS SABIOS INITIATE MEMBERS WITH STYLE

Due Humility Instilled into Hearts of Candidates—Initiates Prove Worth.

About 25 seniors and senioritas assembled Friday evening at the home of Herbert and Mary Fischer for the monthly meeting of Los Sabios. Eleven new members were initiated, including Helena Margaret, Ruth, Mary Collins, Anne Crichton, Alice Bartos, Beatrice Harvey, Ruth Betts, Red Drilla, Ed Nellan, Ken Gates, and Burton Thompson.

When everyone was comfortably seated ready for the meeting to begin, Miss Agnes Unteland, master of ceremonies, gently requested that all of the prospective members retire to the upper regions of the house. Then one by one each new member was led downstairs, bowing deeply before each member, and pronouncing his name with the proper Spanish prefix. They were then requested to retire until the next trial. This proved to be a solemn ritual; the presentation of

(Continued on Page 3.)

STUDENT FRIENDSHIP FUND DRIVE IS ON

Approaches Meet with Warm Response —Need is Great.

The Student Friendship Fund drive is on at Omaha U. The list of students has been divided into twelve parts and twelve students are seeing those opportioned to them.

The need of students in Europe, as told by Mr. Cherrington two weeks ago, is very desperate. The students are responding with real sympathy.

WHITE RACE INDICTED BY SPEAKER AT CHAPEL

Lucile Bivens Makes Strong Case—
Mable Hargrove Appeals—
Both at Convention.

The race problem was the subject of talks given at assembly by Mable Hargrove and Lucile Bivens Wednesday.

The side of the negro was powerfully presented by Lucile, who summarized the achievements of her race, their contributions to the world, and their position of disadvantage among other races.

Pride, prejudice and thoughtlessness are some of the main causes of the race problem, according to a statement Mable quoted from the State Student Volunteer Conference. She appealed to the student body to be fair and show justice in considering racial questions.

LAW MEN ORGANIZE REPUBLICAN CLUB

Will Study History of Political Parties —To Bring Speakers to University.

A Republican Club has been organized by a number of students at University of Omaha Law School and will become active at once in conducting an educational campaign.

Hayes Outlines Work.

Jack Hayes, a representative of the Republican National Committee met with a number of students of the university and outlined the work that is to be done. The purpose of the club of University of Omaha Law School as pointed out by Mr. Hayes is not to campaign for any one man, but to study the history of the Republican Party, its accomplishments, and also to become fully acquainted with the problems of the day. After a large membership has been secured, a speaker of national importance will be brought to the university for an open Republican meeting.

It is also the plan of the club to organize a debate team and challenge the Democrats to a political conflag.

Executive Committee.

The members of the Executive Committee as selected by Mr. Hayes are: William W. Graham, Temporary Chairman, Joseph Rosenthal, John Zozaya, William Raab, Herbert Fischer, Roy Smith, Kendall Fradenburg, and Frances Wiles.

Within the next week the Executive Committee will meet and select permanent officers.

Mara Pense and Helen Searson have improved wonderfully in the art of putting baskets under the able tutelage of Drilla and Mead.

CHADRON FIVE BEATS SCRAPPY MAROON TEAM

Visitors Clearly Outplayed But Omaha Fails to Connect With Hoop.

Chadron defeated the Cardinals last Wednesday on the home floor by a 17 to 8 score. The game which was hotly contested throughout was far closer than the score indicates. Time after time the Maroons punctured the Chadron defense to have their shots roll off the hoop or bounce out after seeming to be in for certain; time after time the Omaha U. defense solved the Chadron offense only to see one-handed shots go through the hoop as clean as a whistle.

The first half was tight for a long time, then Yates sank a long one for Chadron's first points. The addition of three more points put the Chadron crew in the lead, and the game seemed lost. Meek sank one for Omaha, and a few minutes later Bolzendahl's almost certain counter bounced out. The first half ended five to two, after the Cards had missed a flock of shots.

Second Half Spurt.
The second half found the Chadron crew scoring twice before the Omahans found themselves. A scoring spree soon brought Omaha within one point of the Chadron flippers and for a minute victory seemed within the home squads grasp. The score was nine to eight and the crowd was in an uproar. Time out for Omaha seemed to slow up both sides, and the game dragged on with Chadron scoring through the Omaha defense several times. When the final whistle blew the score was 17 to 8.

Lester Meek played his best game of the season getting half of the Card points. His general floor work was the best he has done at any time, and he followed in his shots nicely. Anderson made only other field goal. Nellan play a close guarding game.

The summary:

OMAHA UNIVERSITY (8.)
	F.	G.	F.T.	F. Pts.
Drilla, rf-lf	0	1-1	0	1
Friedl, rf	0	0-0	0	0
Anderson, lf	0	0-1	0	0
Mead, lf	0	0-0	0	0
Meek, c	2	0-2	2	4
Slater, rg-c-rf (A. C.)	0	1-2	0	1
Bolzendahl, rg	0	0-0	1	0
Thompson, rg	0	0-0	0	0
Nellan, lg	0	0-0	0	0
Totals	3	2-6	5	8

CHADRON NORMAL (17)
	F.	G.	F.T.	F. Pts.
Cross, rf	4	0-0	1	8
Kubik, rf-lf	1	0-1	1	2
Yates, lf	0	0-3	0	0
Warren, lf	0	0-0	0	0
O'Connor, c (C)	1	0-0	2	2
Tavenor, c	0	0-1	0	0
Pate, rf	0	0-0	1	0
McKelvey, lg	0	1-1	1	1
Totals	8	1-6	6	17

Referee—Vern Moore, Y. M. C. A.
Time of Halves—Twenty minutes.

The Absence Committee announces that hereafter, to be recognized, absences must not be more than a week old. The Absence Committee meets on Friday, at 10:30.

Miss Voss, new girl's gym assistant, has taken the girls in hand and is showing that what she doesn't know about basketball would be good stuff for the microscope.

THE WEEKLY GATEWAY

Published by the Students of the University of Omaha

—EDITORIAL—

Editor-in-Chief.....Fletcher Slater
Associate Editor.....Herbert Fischer
Exchange Editor.....Joe Houston
Society Editor.....Eleanor Madgett
Sport Editor.....Ed Neelan
Law Editor.....Stewart Kelly

—REPORTORIAL—

Mary Fischer
John Kuhn
Jerry Kutak
Ruth Smith
Kenneth Copley
Russell Mattson
Maxine Foshier

—BUSINESS—

Business Manager.....Perry Borchertling
Assistant.....Louis Murdock
Advertising Manager.....Alice Ruf
Circulation Manager.....Carl Stromberg
Assistant.....Ted Drdia
Assistant.....Jane McConnell
Assistant.....Benjamin Meud

EDITORIAL

A LOCKER ROOM DRAMA

The stocky fellow near the window was talking. "I tell you fellows, what this school needs is school spirit. Look at the way the football team fell down. Terrible! It's a disgrace for a school of this size not to have a football team!"

"There was a pause while the speaker took a fresh breath. "Why didn't you go out for the team, Chuck?" asked one of the locker room loungers.

"Oh, I've got a weak back," murmured the other. "Hi, Jim," to another who joined the group, with a copy of the Gateway under his arm. "Gateway out? Let's see it."

He took the sheet from the other's reluctant hand and let his eye scan the front page, stopping on the right hand headline—"McConnell, Changstrom, Annual Chiefs." After running over the article he commented, "Well, I see the Annual's starting out. It's late enough, but maybe it'll go through all right. I hope so. We had a dandy in high school. I don't suppose they'll back it up out here though. Just like everything else. If the whole school would get up some spirit and boost they could probably put out a decent book. But—"

"That's the way to talk," exclaimed Jim. "We're starting the subscription campaign today and I'll be glad to sign you up, Chuck." He pulled out a subscription book. "Sign on the little dotted line."

"Naw, Jim, listen," chattered Chuck, trying to make a whine sound like straight-from-the-shoulder talk, and failing. "I haven't got any cash today, but it—when I get one, I'll get it from you. Thanks for the Gateway, Jim," and he made for the door with hastened nonchalance, but once outside, he sought the book store and a B. W. D. with the speed of a fugitive fearing pursuit.

Up above, Jim laughed shortly. "A lot of school spirit he's got! It's a good thing there aren't many like him at Omaha U. I suppose he'll read his Annual over somebody's shoulder just like he does the Weekly. Well, such is life. Anyway, you fellows have got the real spirit, haven't you? You all want Annuals, don't you, and are willing to pay for them like honest men aren't you? And I want to tell you you are going to get an annual that you'll be proud of, and one that will make you wish you'd ordered two. Just two hundred are being printed, so sign up with me now, fellows, and be sure you don't get left."

Needless to say, after talking to that bunch, truly representative of Omaha U, Jim had to sharpen his pencil when he got through.

HA, HA, HO, HO HO.

It's great fun to laugh! Isn't it? Just the sensation of stretching our mouths and letting joyous gulps of laughter roll out, or peal out, or thunder out, or twinkle out, as the case may be, is about the happiest thing that we can do. Isn't it? Doesn't it make you feel good all over?

And the first cousin of a laugh is a smile. Not quite so boisterous, but sweeter, more friendly, and even more powerful than its noisy relative.

So for face happiness and heart happiness, try the Smile Massage. It's Great!

THETA NOTES.

One of the most successful meetings of the year was held Wed. night Feb. 20 after the Chadron game at the home of Brother Doctor Shearer. The alumnae was well represented by Platt Taylor, Wade Hayes, Chester Johnston Harold Henderson, Harold Boisen. Two men were pledged to the fraternity, Carroll Corliss, and James Atkisson.

PI OMEGA PI.

The Formal pledging service was held at the home of Eloise Magaret on the evening of Washington's birthday. The new pledges are Mildred Busman, Catharine Christy, Edith Engelke, Alice Horn, Pauline Horn, Mildred Koochman, and Lorene Sleeper.

CONTRIBUTORS' COLUMN

A Column Expressly for the Purpose of Encouraging Literary Work Among the Students of the U. of O. Hand all Contributions into the Gateway office, or place in Gateway Mail Box.

A COMMENT ON

"TWELFTH NIGHT"

One of the distinctive features of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" as interpreted by Sothorn and Marlowe, last week at the Brandeis Theatre was the absence of all snore of dress and gaudiness of the stage settings. These were of the most simple kind. It is question whether this too simple background tended to center the attention more upon the actors, or whether it detracted from the general atmosphere. There is quite a contrast from the elaborate surroundings of David Warfield, when he was here some time ago.

Mr. Sothorn, as Malvolio, did not have much opportunity of expressing himself, as he does in his other plays, although he makes the most of it when the time comes, as in the prison scene, where he rails against human ingratitude and injustice. Here he reaches the depth of pathos.

Miss Marlowe, playing the very youthful part of Viola, was also at a disadvantage. But her exhortation on the love of the Duke could not be equalled by any modern flapper.

Mr. Fredrick Lewis, as the Duke of Orsino, would have been hard to duplicate in the scene on "Love," especially on those lines, "If music be sign of love, play on."

Perhaps the most notable success of the evening was that of the sub-action, consisting of Mr. T. B. Bailey, as Sir Toby; Mr. France Bendtsen, as Sir Aguecheek; and Mr. Sternroyd, as Feste, the Clown. No doubt the drunken revelry of the barroom scene brought back tender memories to many a staid bachelor present. Mr. Sternroyd's singing was particularly enjoyable. His clear, resonant voice, pronouncing such beautiful sentiment with the music, seemed very incongruous with his appearance.

He was characteristic of Shakespeare's clowns—too wise. One often wonders how they could live such lives of subservieny with such intellect, if wit be a sign of mental alertness or superiority. There is much philosophy in his saying: "It is better to be a witty fool, than a foolish wit."

—Jerry Kutak.

The Busy Reporter went out for some news and discovered a few of the famous sayings current on the campus. They are recorded as follows:

Jack Bolzendahl: "Come, come now!"

Homer Schler:—Ditto. Weir Carson:—Ditto. Clarence Spearman:—Ditto. In fact, everyone was saying "Come, come, now!" But the first one to be heard uttering it was Minnesota Jack himself. So we conclude that he was the first one to have the required seventeen cents.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY GROWS FAST

Classes Increase 100 Per Cent— Important Work Carried on by Department.

Students at the University are beginning to appreciate the importance of Prof. Sullenger's Sociology Department. The enrollment at least would so indicate; from 70 students the first semester the number has expanded to 140 the second—a 100 per cent gain.

The work of the Department and of the research classes has been extensive. In conjunction with the Social Settlement workers, the research classes are at present making a survey of the South Side's social life. Each member of the class has a certain phase of this broad subject to cover, but the data when collected will be written up and published by the Social Settlement Organ.

There has been an acute need in the city for accurate data along the line of Church social activities. This Prof. Sullenger has attempted to meet by the publication of his booklet, entitled, "A Recreational Survey of the Churches of Omaha."

The Churches are not unappreciative of Prof. Sullenger's work. The Clifton Hill Presbyterian Congregation has asked him to speak before them on "The Place of Recreation in the Church," March 6th, as has the Castellar Presbyterian, March 11th.

The Sociology head also carried on extended research work in Crime. Miss Harvey, under Prof. Sullenger's supervision, collected most of the available data on the subject. The outcome is a bulletin, soon to be published called "A Survey of Crime, its Causes and Extent among Foreigners in Omaha."

To those interested in social welfare work within the city these two pamphlets by Prof. Sullenger are of interest. Copies may be secured from the School at the Uni Bookstore and at Keiser's Bookstore for 15 cents a piece.

IMPORTANT ACTIONS AT FACULTY MEETING

Two things were discussed at length at the Faculty meeting, Feb. 14th. The report of the Pan-Hellenic Committee was submitted to the Faculty and accepted. The prepared Constitution was also read.

Suggested means of remedying run-over chapel periods were discussed. Palpably a prolonged chapel is unfair to the 10:30 classes and if continued, delays those classes from covering full semester work. Teachers were asked to dismiss classes immediately and, as good examples, go at once themselves to Chapel hour. Only special chapels will be allowed to pass the half hour limit hereafter, and an announcement will be made each time taking the overtime from these equally from two succeeding hours. In the future all students and faculty chapels will conclude promptly at 10:30.

TACTFUL QUESTIONER

A beautiful young widow sat in her deck chair in the stern and near her sat a very handsome man. The widow's daughter, a cute little girl of four or five years, crossed over to the man and said:

"What's your name?"

"Herklimer Wilkinson," was the reply.

"Is you married?"

"No; I'm a bachelor."

The child turned to her mother and said:

"What else did you tell me to ask him, mummy?"

A Hero.

Jim—I hear Tom got the Carnegie medal with special mention for saving a person from drowning.

Jim—Yes? Why the special mention?

Jim—The person was his wife.— Penn State Froth.

STUDENTS RAKE WAR OVER COALS AT CHAPEL

Discussion of War Shows Thought and Study—All Views of Its Solution Taken.

A joint meeting of the Y. W. and Y. Roosters was held at assembly Tuesday to discuss the war problem, Ken Baker, chairman, opened the meeting for discussion.

Carl Stromberg presented four possible viewpoints toward the war question, pacifism, for the League and the Court but willing to fight if a war came, promotion of education against war as a preventative, prevention of war by preparedness, and armament.

Laura Redgwick said that education was necessary before the people could be in the proper frame of mind to prevent wars, and favored Court and League as means of prevention.

Joe Houston introduced the subject by asking the question, "Is war ever justifiable? Why not have a department of peace as well as a department of war in the government, and why not have disarmament instead of armament," were other issues of his speech.

General discussion of the subject followed the speeches, in which advocates of all the possible viewpoints were found among the student body.

LAW NOTES

A feature of last week's Bills and Notes radio program was the bedtime story related by Uncle Peter Habbit Fischer. The little folks were much pleased to hear him relate the funny anecdote of how the bad fox got the plaintiff out of bed to present his note on the defendant who was also in bed (to be known as the bed of the party of the second part) but that this did not constitute proper presentment because how could you expect a man in bed to be presentable. To make an ungood matter not so excellent Uncle Peter finished the evening with the statement that the matter was decided for the plaintiff non-suit which of course explained why he'd been in bed.

Attorneys Morris, Sadowski and Smith were pleased to announce their maiden tangle before the moot bar on Saturday last. A few badly sprained conjunctive clauses and a fractured nominative absolute constituted the entire category of reported casualties. Insufficiency of reliable data and sterility of our imagination forbids a recitation of the facts of the case. Be it known, recognized and apprehended by all and sundry however, that no more scintillant oratory nor keenly contested issues have characterized any case in the history of the court up to this time.

Early in the hearing Sadowski opened up an aerial offensive that bewildered his opponents, his audience and himself. He scored almost at will for a period of several minutes until the intrepid Morris, falling into play all his tremendous reserve of youth and virility unloosed a slashing counter attack that fairly whipped Sadowski off his feet into the arms of the three female jurors. Smith went into the fray securely girded and sheathed with an air of professional perspicuity and betrayed no whit of shaken confidence even in times when defeat seemed inevitable.

The moral effect of the trial was reduced to almost nil however due to a rumour which was circulated to the effect that none of the contesting attorneys were responsible for their acts since all were under the influence of salted peanuts and licorice chips.

THE ONE WHO WON

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

TWO there were upon a quest:
One went east, and one went west;
One was rich, and one was poor,
One the highroad, one the moor.

One of them (no matter which,
Maybe poor, or maybe rich,
One with wealth, or one with not,
Road or moor, no matter what).

One of them, who trudged along,
As he traveled, sang a song,
Smiled to see the sun again,
Played with snow, and laughed at rain.

One of them found many things
All along to give him wings,
Morning-glory, whippoorwill,
Often helped him up the hill.

One of them, I'm sad to say,
Traveled quite another way,
Cursed the rocks, and cursed the road,
Ev'ry labor, ev'ry load.

One of them, (no matter whom,
Man of gladness, man of gloom,
Man of wealth, or man of naught),
Found at last the thing he sought.

One of them (no matter which,
On the highroad, in the ditch)
Found the thing he sought, although
Which it was I do not know.

One of them, I know at least,
Found work fun, and life a feast,
If he won, or if he lost,
Found the journey worth the cost.

Two there were. Whichever came,
Wealth or want, or failure, fame,
Good or bad, or right or wrong,
One at least had had the song.

(© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Father—What's your mother doing?
Walter (who has just come downstairs)—She's either dressing for a party or going to bed.

LOS SABIOS INITIATE.

(Continued from Page 7.)

the token of friendship from Los Sabios. The men administered said token to the girls and vice versa, Howard Anderson doing especially well in this field.

Because the new members were getting slightly rusty from anticipation a number of setting up exercises were administered by Senorita Undeland assisted by Senor Fischer who pumped the piano. The coordination between mind and limb was not as well as it might have been, and when senor Susy became entangled with the chandeliers, singing was substituted for callisthenics, and the U. of O. song was sung to Yankee Doodle. Those who did unsatisfactory work in either of the last two stunts were required to lie flat on their backs and allow a five pound brick from the Undeland fireplace to descend upon their chests. Both Senor Collins and Senor Neilan admit sore stomachs were in order for several days.

The next on the program was entertainment furnished by Mrs. Collins and Alice Bartos. A paper of cracker crumbs was spread before them, their duty being to imbibe the said crumbs as noiselessly and speedily as possible, and would probably still be at the job if senorita Bartos had not acquired a nose bleed.

Each prospect was given generous doses of cornstarch and salt. Those who were not satisfied with that, received vinegar.

Again everyone was shooed upstairs, returning one by one to read and translate a portion of pig-Latin Spanish in order to insure the present members that no one would slip into the club without having a proper understanding of the chosen tongue. The pronunciation of a number can afford a little polishing, but in time it is expected that all the new members will speak on a par with Senor Slater and other notables.

Sandwiches, cake, coffee, and jello were ushered in as the last part of the program, and the newly-elected members soon revived.

Returned With Thanks.

She—I suppose every profession has its drawbacks?
He—Yes, and the drawbacks of the literary profession are the comebacks.

Suspicious.

"That office boy doesn't whistle, smoke, cuss or read dime novels."
"Guess we'd better fire him. He must be planning to crack the safe."

Lots of Them.

"Is golf a difficult game to learn?"
"It is. I know some men who have been playing it for years and they haven't learned the rules yet."

BASKET BALL

OMAHA VS. DANA

OMAHA FIGHTS!

This fast, heavy team from Blair promises to be a dangerous opponent for the Maroons, having won all their games this year. Omaha's team is working together as never before.

There'll be a hot time in the old gym

FRIDAY NITE

8:30 February 29th at Jacobs Memorial Gymnasium
3600 North Twenty-Fourth Street

NOW!!

That the book question is settled. How about some jewelry

TODAY.

U. OF O. BOOK STORE

"We Strive to Please"

Job for a Referee.

A girl secretary discovered that her employer and her husband did not live happily together, their quarrels being embarrassingly frequent. She therefore gave notice to leave.

"Why?" inquired the woman in surprise.

"Oh, you don't want a secretary in this family," replied the girl. "What you need is a referee!"

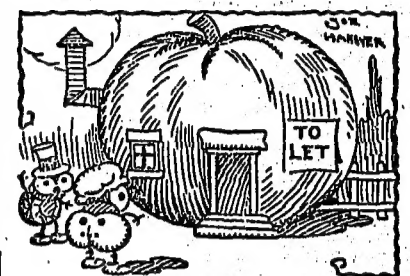

He Was Helpless.

"My daughter runs up tremendous bills with her dressmaker."

"Well, why do you let her order so many dresses?"

"If I don't she'll come out in knickerbockers."

GREAT HUNT

Mr. Bug—But 200 apple seeds a month is too much rent.

Mrs. Bug—I know, my dear, but we can eat the house when we leave.

It Would, Indeed.

If we could only wash our minds
And hang them on the line,
Then put them on all sweet and clean—
Now, wouldn't that be fine?

A Few Only.

Stranger—Rastus, do the people who live across the road from you keep chickens?

Rastus—Dey keeps some of 'em, sah.

Allaying Suspicion.

Hey—Why do you insist on buying that specific brand of perfume for your wife? Does she prefer it?

Dey—No, but it's the kind my stenographer uses.

The New Clerk.

Young Squibb—I want to try on that suit in the window.

Clerk—Sorry, sir, but you'll have to use the dressing room.

Truthful.

Customer—Do you guarantee these trousers all wool?

Tailor—Well, thir, I von't dehtieve you—the buttenth lith brath.

THE BUG COP

Bug Cop—Hey, you move on.

Bug Bug—What you got to do with it?

Bug Cop—A lot—I'm the officer on this beet.

Song of Cheer.

Why should we mind the weather?
And why should we repine?
We're in this world together—
Praise God! for rain or shine.

STATE BARBER SHOP

"Shop of Personal Attention"

PAUL COSTANZO, Prop.

Clean Towels to all Customers

Manicuring 1517 Harney St

SHOTS FROM THE FLOOR

There are only two more games left for the team to play, with the Dana Academy of Blair and with the Grand Islanders. Dana is here Friday and the whole school should be out to see squad annex another victory. After that the Grand Island quint is our guest, and the team hopes to show the school that because they are guests is no reason for not being defeated. These two victories are to be pulled off Friday, the 29th, and March the 4th. Everybody out to see the season's finish.

Girls' basket ball is getting nicely started now with their practices being held regularly in the gym. Mrs. King has been coaching them in teamwork and the results are beginning to show already. There are about twenty girls out for the teams, and so there is plenty of material. The girls that look the best in the work outs are Betty Pressly and Beatrice Milnamowe forwards; Grace Pressly and Hilma Peterson, guards. There isn't much choice at the centers as no one seems to have shown up very well yet.

Pauline Horton is one of the girls who stars at whatever position she is placed. She is a guard, and excellent forward, and can play running center also.

The other girls need experience. Among the girls who are out, are, Helen Searson, Clara Pease, Thelma Woods, Laura Redgewick, Flo Jensen, Roberta Ray, Alice Grobeck, Unyce Kingston, Mary Tyson, Winifred Dempsey, Virginia Duffield, Gwendolyn Cheek, Lois Niles, Jane McConnell, Anne Crichton. Of these girls, Virginia Duffield, Anne Crichton, Lois Niles, Mary Tyson, Winifred Dempsey, and Gwendolyn Cheek make another good team that would be hard to beat. Anne, Virginia, and Lois all throw the ball through the hoop regularly while Mary Tyson is one of the best guards out for the squad. Winifred and Gwen have a world of pep and are in the game every minute. The prospects for a good team are very bright.

Eddie Thompson and Betty Pressly issue a challenge to any other couple in the school to beat them at basket ball according to the rules perfected by Bolvendahl and Thompson. This pair beat Dempsey and Bozo the other night and are looking for new fields to conquer. Anyone desiring to contest the title see Eddie.

We understand that Prof. McKibben has blossomed forth recently with a Baby Overland.

SEAVEY HUDSON CO. REALTORS

"Your Real Estate and Insurance Headquarters"
228-9 City Nat'l. At. 9039
"Own a piece of the Earth"

JOIN THE

Y

Special rates for Uni students from now until end of school term—$5.00.

THE
UNIVERSITY LUNCH
Serves Good Meals

THE Surer WAY

Placards around the hotel invited suggestions from patrons, so one guest ventured to offer something in this line.

"Why don't you put telephones near the beds?"

"Won't do," answered the manager. "We've tried that."

"Why won't it do?"

"Every morning we call people to tell them it is time to get up."

"What of that?"

"If you have to cross the room to answer the telephone, then you are up."—Hotel Mull.

Quelling the Blast.

Mrs. Patter—Well, doctor, why don't you look at my tongue? How long do you expect I'm going to sit here with my mouth wide open?

Dr. Germchaser—Just one moment more, madam. I only wanted you to keep still long enough for me to write this prescription.

Best Wishes for the Dead.

Country Editor—Did Silas Kiddier answer your letter, telling him that his subscription had expired?

Assistant—He did. He sent back the letter with R. I. P. scrawled across it.

Possible Reason.

"This chicken tastes rather wooden."
"Well, it was hatched in an incubator, raised in a pen, and sent to a cold storage warehouse."

A Dig.

Miss Thirteen—There are so many fast young men nowadays.

Miss Eighteen—Yes, dear, you do seem to have difficulty in catching on.

Failed to Note.

"When you refused him my hand, papa, did he go down on his knees?"

"Well, I didn't notice just where he landed."—London Weekly Telegraph.

Natural.

Albert—It's funny, but I'm always luckiest when I'm broke.

Herbert—How's that?

Albert—I never lose any money then.

"Some day I suppose you want to be a great financier like me, eh?"

"A financier—yes. But not like you. Dad says you got indigestion bad."

Koo Koo Pome!

If a cuckoo bird in a cuckoo clock laid cuckoo eggs all speckled alike, I'll bet when prices reached the top that durned old cuckoo bird would strike!

Oh, Yes!

"What is indicated by the finding of broken-headed Neolithic men in Ireland?"

"The Ancient Ardor of the Hibernians."—Life.

Not One Squawk.

Bandit (threatening)—What would you say if I should cut off your head? Scared Tourist—Not a word, not a word.

High Priced.

"I lost my money in that restaurant."

"Did you report it?"

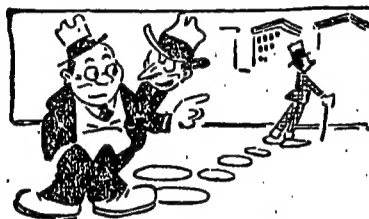

"Yes, but they said it was their usual charge."

Private Performance.

He—Has your friend, the soprano, ever reached high G?

She—Yes; one day at the dentist's I believe she did.

EMACIATED

"Thinley seems to fear his own shadow."

"If I cast as little shadow as Thinley I'd never have a shadow of a fear."

All That Remains.

Our laws are quite enough, we vow; For matters great and small. We only need the talent now That can police them all.

PETE SAYS—

Once upon a time a long time ago, there was a team called Omaha Uni Maroons cause why nobody knows. They was marooned on a little island out by 24 and Pratt streets by five Eagles from the neighboring Isle of Chadron. They call this here island this because in the early days the shad run up the creeks in herds like the salmon in Oregon, but then this ain't no fish story nohow. Well these five eagles they jumped on these marooners which is also called cardinals because they sings so pretty or thinks they does, and the cards went under the snow. During the process, they is a little wrestling etc. on the side. Well the chief of these Eagle injuns, he yelps about the scalping that a big bozo on the birds side is doing. "Say," he says, "What's this bird trying to do; kill that man?"

"Nope, He's just playing with him" says the Marooners chief, which is a comeback with a vengeance.

Then Friday the real snow started and Saturday morning, The marooners put on their boots and waded in the snow. Well on the next Friday the Cards they meets a band of Swedish savages from the wilds of Blair. They is expecting to come home with the scalps of the scandinavians injuns in their grasp an they wants all the crowns of the Uni in the balcony to watch the scene.

The Next skirmish after the Blair fight will be with the Grand Island hottentots who is a tough bunch of cookies from the wilds of Nebraska. These birds is more used to a football from the advance press notices and the game will in all probability be a tough one. The team is planning a surprise after the game so that all you fellows want to be out and be sure and bring your Shebas (Quoting Schleh.) The surprise will be a hum-dinger for certain providing Grand Island consents to be defeated.

—Adios.

Agreed.

"Let's go walkin' Miss Johnsing. I feels kinda pedestrian tonight." "All right. I feels kinda walkative mah own self."—Nashville Tennessean.

Well Known.

Man (in court)—A public character? I should say I am! Why, I haven't paid my taxes without being sued for the last 21 years!—London Tit-Bits.

PLATNER BROS.

AGENTS FOR THE FAMOUS

PEERLESS RADIANT

COAL

When Others Fail Try Peerless

MOST WONDERFUL COAL IN EXISTENCE

DIRECT FROM CARS TO YOUR BIN

NO SMOKE

MORE HEAT

$11.75

PER TON

NO SOOT

LESS ASH

A COKING COAL

Everyone Likes It

ONE ORDER WILL CONVINCE YOU

ILL. FRANKLIN COUNTY LUMP, ton.....$10.50

ILL. CENTRAL DISTRICT LUMP, ton.....$ 9.00

24th and Boyd
25th and Oak

Phone
KE 5811

46th and Farnam
27th and Broadway

OMAHA SPORTING GOODS COMPANY, Inc.

"Everything for the Sportsman"
1806 HARNEY ST.
Phone AT lantic 0961

RADIO SUPPLY CO.

Loud Speaker for Crystal or
One Tube Set

2306 Leavenworth HA 8160

The Handy Store Across the Street

Kountze Park Grocery

Everything in the Line of Eats for the Student
Phone Webster 0654

The Easiest Way to Get
Money is to Save It

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF OMAHA